Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 12 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny start then cloudier with a few showers, becoming windy.

Today:
A dry and bright start with sunny spells. A scattering of heavy blustery showers developing around lunchtime but dying out again later in the afternoon. Strong southwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Strong winds continuing but mainly dry, although one or two blustery showers may skirt with the north coasts and move inland around dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
A very blustery day with some showers, occasionally heavy but moving through quickly on strong winds. A few brighter interludes too. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Lighter winds on Saturday and mainly dry and bright, clouding over in the afternoon, some rain later. Rain clearing on Sunday but some showers later. Cloudy but mainly dry Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.